

Department of Literature, De La Salle University-Manila
jazmin.llana@dlsu.edu.ph

*First presented at the 'What is Performance Philosophy? Staging a New Field' International Conference, University of Surrey, Guildford, UK, on 11-13 April 2013, with support from the DLSU Faculty Development Program.

Abstract: The subject of the paper is the procession of the Black Nazarene of Quiapo, Manila in the Philippines, held on the 9th of January. Theorizing pilgrimage as performance, I am exploring the productive uses of Alain Badiou's concept of