announces the opening of application for

The 2016 International Higher Education Scholarship Program (IHESP) sponsored by the Taiwan's International Cooperation and Development Fund (Taiwan ICDF) through the Taipei Economic and Cultural Office (TECO) in the Philippines is now open for Filipino citizens to apply. The IHESP is in partnership with 20 Universities in Taiwan and offers 23 different graduate or PhD programs conducted entirely in English.

The IHESP enables talented young citizens to come to Taiwan to pursue their higher education and study relevant courses that are specifically designed to address key development issues. These courses focus on the development needs of our partner countries by addressing issues such as tropical agriculture, aquatic, sciences, business administration, information technology, human resource development, medicine and public health, or various fields of engineering. The IHESP aims to boost social development and economic growth by generating a pool of quality human resources.

The IHESP provides each recipient with:

Full financial support for tuition, living expenses, economic class round-trip air tickets, credit fees, insurance, textbook costs and monthly stipend during the duration of educational program in Taiwan.

Each recipient receives a monthly stipend of NT$15,000(Php 20,500) in Master Program and NT$17,000(Php21, 900) in PhD Program respectively.

January 1 to March 18, 2016

This requires DIRECT APPLICATION to TAIWAN ECONOMIC AND CULTURAL OFFICE (TECO) in the Philippines with address at

Taipei Economic and Cultural Office in the Philippines
