

Primer for New Graduate Students

About the Office

The Office of the University Registrar is an academic service unit that administers operations in the areas of: enrollment, student records,

